

Campus Reps

Four great benefits to being a
ClassWish Campus Rep:

1. Take on a leadership role
2. Enhance your resume
3. Make a difference
4. Generate funds for college tuition and textbooks

About ClassWish

ClassWish is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization based in NYC and working nationwide.

Our initial focus was in providing resources for K-12 students. We are now turning attention to help generate funds for nonprofits and for college tuition and textbooks, as well.

We offer high-achieving students unparalleled opportunities to assume responsibility, use their skills, gain experience, and make a difference – and provide relief from the cost of college tuition and textbooks.

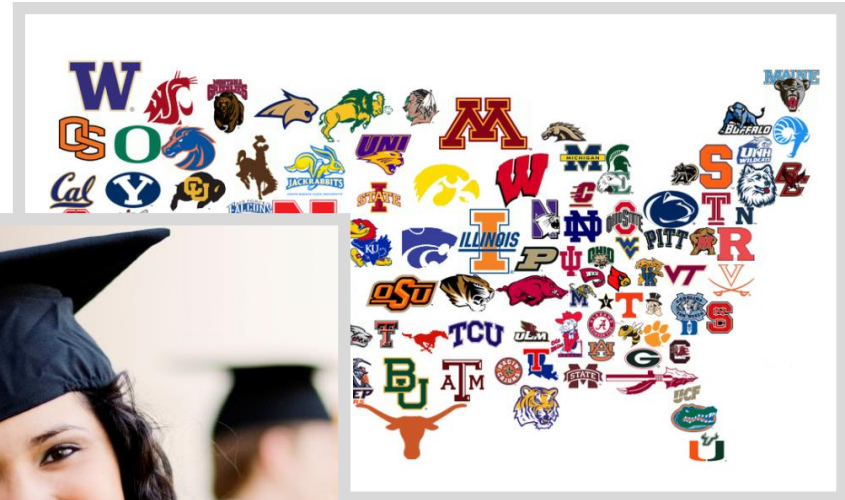

"ClassWish helps teachers get the supplies that are essential for children to get a great education."

Sarah Brown Wessling
2010 National Teacher of the Year

We are tackling two problems at once:

- Schools and nonprofits need far more funding to fulfill their missions.
- Students and their families are burdened by the skyrocketing cost of college tuition and textbooks.

Neiman Marcus

Imagine how much money students and their families spend each year at stores, grocers, gas stations, restaurants, and hotels. Soon, everyone will be able to capture 8% of that amount to make the world a better place—and to pay towards their own tuition and textbooks.

Roles for Campus Reps

ClassWish Campus Reps will help raise awareness of this opportunity for students, professors, and their families to generate funding for schools, nonprofits, and college tuition.

We will recruit a campus rep on each college campus. They, in turn, will recruit additional campus reps to focus on each of these areas:

- Athletics
- Residence halls
- Professors and administration
- Alumni
- Student media
- Social media
- Communications
- Marketing
- Greek life
- Student government
- Student clubs and organizations
- Events
